They had to move their house too. There was no trouble when Anna and the children are living and they are all well. We have all in usual health, and I am getting on nicely.

Remember me to Grandpa, I hope that Helen and family keep well. I shall hope to receive a few lines from you and to know that you are growing strong again.

With love, I am
Affectionately
Your Sister
Lorrain.

My dear brother John:-

I have just heard today that you have been quite ill with Grippe.
Etti brought in a Martinez paper this morning with the item, also telling that you were now much improved, for which I am very glad.
I have been thinking so much about you lately and wondering how you would be. It has been such a rainy time, more so I have heard in the Valley than with us I shall hope to hear that you keep on improving until in your usual health again. The weather now is bright and sunshiny.

making it a pleasure to be out of doors. I hope

Wanda and her family are well, I have not heard from her for some time.

Very lately I had a letter from Joanna, they are very much with their home and the people at Gister Park. She tells me that her youngest daughter Bernice will be married next month to a man she has been acquainted with since they were children in Philadelphia. He has a large farm not far from the City I think. Likely you will have heard too. The day was not given when she wrote, so we will hear again. We hear by letters from Anna and Margorie of the great flood from the Los Angeles river that has done so much damage after the heavy rains. The Grindinger Cousins have had a big loss. Their barns brooder house the Lenee and even their Eucalyptus gone all swept down the river
